

PeerSpirit Circle Practicum

August 12 - 17, 2015
Whidbey Island, WA

The PeerSpirit Circle Practicum is a five day seminar based on Christina Baldwin and Ann Linnea's signature book, The Circle Way, A Leader in Every Chair. Confident facilitation of Circle Process is the basis for many collaborative conversation modalities. The practicum immerses participants in experience, training, curriculum, and application. The design fosters skill development in both professional and personal life.

Participants will learn:

- Individual Skills and Practices
- Circle Energetics
- Challenges to Council
- Vision, Reality and Intention

A narrative application process is required via the PeerSpirit website. This seminar supports professional development for coaches, consultants, clergy, teachers, community leaders, managers, mediators -- all who facilitate qualities of conversation.

LOCATION: The Marsh House, Whidbey Island, Washington.

COST: $1475. There is a $50 discount for teaching colleagues and multiple registrations from the same organization.

Fee includes workshop, materials, lodging and all meals.

REGISTRATION: Call the PeerSpirit office (360) 331-3580 with any questions, or register online at www.peerspirit.com.

2014 Participants

Facilitated by the founders of this methodology:
Christina Baldwin & Ann Linnea

Life & Leadership through Circle, Quest & Story

P.O. Box 550 • Langley, WA 98260 USA
phone/fax: 360-331-3580 email: cbaldwin@peerspirit.com • website: www.peerspirit.com